TANGLE KICKED AT THE POST.

BEATEN IN STAKE BY BLAIR ATHOL AND ATHLETE.

Oxford Takes Flying Handicap at Long Odds-Hamburg Belle Wins Handsomely at a Mile-Sidney F. Comes Home Heavily Backed at Sheepshead.

Tangle, regarded as one of the best fillies of the year, in the Autumn Maiden Stakes, for the year-olds, five and a half furlongs traightaway, which was run at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon, was a distinct distment. Tangle was the favorite, although her price went back to 11 to 5 because of the play on H. P. Whitney's Commune, backed down to sevens, together with a big lunge on W. Shields's Ben Hodder, who hammered from 6 to 1 down to 16 to 5. at the post Tangle seemed inclined to sulk and in a mixup she was finally kicked on the near foreleg, with the result that she showed an ugly out near the knee joint after the race This mishap evidently took the heart out of her, for although Shaw used his whip as soon as the gate went up she refused to run, and it was only through sheer perseverance that the jockey managed to land Tanya's sister in third place. Athlete, 6 to 1, an added starter, made the pace to the bend, here W. M. Sheftel's Blair Athol. 7 to 1, a tanding a hard drive won the race by a length in 1:07 1-5. Athlete hung on to the end and beat Tangle half a length, with Comparts of a length behind. Ben Hodder was utrun from the start.

Tommy Burns had Handzarra, the favorite.

When Preen tire i of showing the way, at the half mile pole, Oxford, neglected at 12 to 1, went to the front and won in a gallop by two lengths in 1:14. It was a close fit for the place, Andrew Miller's Incantation, 7 to 1, taking it from T. L. Watt's Don Royal, 20 to 1, by a nose, with H. B. Dur-yea's Dreamer, 4 to 1, a head out of the money. Sydney Paget's Hamburg Belle ran a brilin the mile handicap. pounds and conceding lumps of weight to the others, the noted mare was a hot favorite at 7 to 10, and she made good, too, by taking the lead in the first hundred yards and carrying it to the end. where she was breezing with three engths to spare in 1:40 4-5. Mike Clancy's Tommy Waddell, a 30 to 1 shot, nipped the lace from James R. Keene's Von Tromp, 0 to 1, who would have been second sure

10 to 1, who would have been second sure had little Myers kept his head. Monsieur Beaucaire, after a poor beginning, closed strong and was a head back.

Newton Bennington's Sidney F., pounded down to 0 to 10 favorite, captured the first race, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, Futurity ocurse, in easy style. O'Neill brought him from behind in the last quarter and he quickly settled the controversy by winning by a length and a half in 1:14. Peter Wimmer's Larable, 4 to 1, who led most of the way, was second, three parts of a length before R. Ta Wilson, Jr.'s, Nostromo, 8 to 1. James R. Keene's True Love, a filly by Commando, was prominent' early, but was evidently short.

Dolphin and Partridge Stakes Are the Features.

Only a fair lot of three-year-olds have een named for the Dolphin Stakes, nine furlongs, to be run at Sheepshead Bay track this afternoon. Pasadena must concede weight to the fast filly Coy Maid and to James B. Brady's Waterlight, who will probably rule the choice, with Gamara also in some favor. For the Partridge Stakes, at six furlongs on the turf, Yankee Consul, Phidias, Vi O and Bill Phillips will probably attract support. In the handicap, at six furlongs on the main track. Shot Gun has top weight, with Lady Amelia also well burdened, and such sprinters as Frontenac, Handzarra,

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 28 .- Thirty-five hundred persons saw the races at the opening of the Grand Circuit meeting here to-day, the attendance comparing favorably with that of former years. In the first race, the 2:08 pace, Don Carr, owned by Tobias Burke of this city, was favorite, selling at $100, with the field selling at $80. Loretta M., a three-year-old black filly, by Pirate of Penzance—Fertile, winner of a number of stakes in the West, including the Ascot Oaks, met her fate in the last race yesterday at the Bay. Running in the name of M. H. Tichenor, the Chicago horseman, and ridden by W. Buchanan got her out of her predicament as quickly as possible and sent her after the others as well as he knew how. The filly ran on three legs with remarkable courage until she had completed the journer up the backstretch, when the jockey suddenly realized that something was wrong with his mount and pulled her up. A crowd of stable hands rushed up and found that Loretta M. had broken her off foreleg and was in a hopeless condition. Her trainer also made an filly's racing career was at an end, so she was soon led away and killed in order to end her suffering. Jockey Eugene Hildebrand is in temporary disfavor with the Whitney stable. When Jug-gler was scratched from the Autumn Stakes O'Neill was put up on Commune in the Whitney silks. Hildebrand, upon whose services the stable has second call, did not have a mount in the race and could not tell the reason why he had been supplanted by O'Neill. While Trainer Rogers refused to discuss the matter, there was a story in circulation that Hildebrand had been disciplined for working Timber too fast in a trial for the obeyed orders by whipping Timber in Saturcredited, for as one man put it:

Hildebrand was evidently wrought up over the incident, for he kept away from Rogers the rest of the afternoon. A rumor was current, although it could not be beiled down to facts, that Clarence H. Mackay might transfer his stallions and brood mares to a "maiden" farm in Ken-tucky this fall. It was said that Mr. Mackay had received strong inducements to make the change, although he has an option on Silver Brook Farm, over in New Jersey, until Nov. 1, which he has not yet closed. Mhots at Sea Girt. SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 28 .- A Massachusette man, Private James Durward of the Fifth, won the individual national championship to-day after a see-saw contest of four days. Durward's first skirmish run was 83, and his second run, 91, clinched the victory, for big runs have been at a discount. Durward also won the gold medal for the highest aggregate score in skirmish

While the statistical officers were whelmed with figures this evening and were unable to announce the twelve medal winners, Capt. A. E. Wells of the Seventy-first New York with a total of 411 is among the twelve medal men. The individual pistol match went to Lieut R. H. Sayre of Squadron A after an intensely exciting match. Sayre scored 237 out of a possible 250, defeating First Lieut, Jens E. Stedie, Fourth Cavalry, Toin Anderton of the Manhattan Rifle and

Revolver Association and George Cook, the crack Marriand rifle shot, tied for third place, with 234. Sayre made three possibles in the five ranges fired. His scores were: Seventy-five yards slow fire, 44; twenty-five yards timed fire, 50; fifty yards timed fire, 43; twenty-five yards rapid fire, 50; fifteen yards rapid was saved from Deing dull by the Dati Dreasing hitting of the New Yorks. The St. Louismen played a mechanical, lack-luster game, and even in the first inning, when the first three batters made base hits, did not appear to be enthusiastic over the outlook. Mathewson was their master at all stages, and they would have been shut out but for a base on balls and a fumble by Strang. There was not much doing in the first three innings, but in the fourth the New Yorks began a batting foray on the Thielman preserves and devastated the latter for a supply of binglesithat were rich in quantity; and quality. Long fine hits, with the ball headed for the ropes, gave the St. Louis outfielders much leg exercise. The ball went so fast several times that the same St. Louis outfielders would have saved distance and breath had they chased straight out instead of cutting across in vain endeavors to head the ball off. What they could not do in the heading off with their hands they tried to do with their feet, but the pedal fielding was no more successful than the hand work.

Four Cardinals reached first base in the first inning, but done reached the promised land. After Dunleavy singled. Shannon's smash glanced off Mathewson's hand. Deviling srabbed the ball up, but could not get Shannon. However, he did better than that, making a quick throw to Strang, who tagged Dunleavy, who had overrun second it was a sharp and quickwitted play, the sort that teams of championship stuff make. Smoot curved a safe one to-center, Strang disposed of Beckley, Shay walked and§alled the apertures, and McBride hit azureward, with Dahlen the magnet that attracted the ball on its return to earth.

After forcing Mertes in the second and going to second on a wild pitch, the usually clear-headed Dahlen let his wits go wool gathering. He ran to third on Devlin's fly to Smoot and was doubled. That was a play that teams of championship stuff on nor make often. Burke made a clever play in the third. Bowerman doubled, and Mathewson drove a jumper to Burke. The la Dunleavy scored for St. Louis in the sixth on a base on balls, two outs at first and Strang's fumble. Barring this one slip, Strang fielded excellently. Danien flicked a home run to center in the seventh inning. The muscular four—Donlin, McGann, Mertes and Dahlen—made all of New York's runs and ten of the hits. The Cardinals filled up in the ninth with two real hits and a bunt, but it was growing near Mathewson's dinner hour and the third out came quickly. The score:

BROOKLYN, 10; CINCNINATI, 6.

An interesting, but somewhat loosely played game between the Cincinnatis and Brooklyns at Washington Park yesterday was won by the Brooklyns, who got off with a big lead, were overtaken, then went to the front again and stayed there. Two pitchers were swatted to the bench. Four hits and three errors enabled the Reds to make six runs in the fourth inning and take the lead, but the tailenders were not dismayed. They struck a hitting streak in the eighth and won then and there. Lumley was the star batsman of the day with three singles and a home run. The score:

eleventh hour and therefore stands out most prominently. The score was a tie when the Naps came to bat in the ninth. Jackson singled and went to second on Turner's out. Clarke walked and, with Hess up, both pulled off the double steal. Hess then poked a grounder at Chesbro, who, turning to third with his arm uplifted, chased Jackson back to the bag. Then he shot the bail to Conroy, who had to stretch himself to pull in the wide throw. Hess bumped into him, sending him off his balance, and before he could recover Jackson had crossed the plate.

Cleveland chased Orth off the rubber in the seventh, after Jackson had scored on his double. Turner's sacrifice. Clarke's out and Hess's double, Chesbro succeeding him. The sixth practically sounded Orth's death knell. Clarke walked and Bay singled, both scoring on Filck's double. The latter scored on a steal and Bradley's single. Hess did not allow a hit for six innings. In the seventh Keeler and Elberfeld singled and scored on Williams's double. A sacrifice and Conroy's single sent Williams home and Conroy counted on Bay's error, a passed ball and a wild pitch.

Lajoic celebrated his readvent into the same by playing first base, but failed to distinguish himself either at the bag or at bat. The shaking up of the batting order worked well. The score:
